- The Line8 Vision

Thank you for choosing Line8.

My philosophy is to design a safe and easy-to-use power track without any compromise.

What you see before you is a distillation of years of R&D in electrical engineering, mechanical design and material sciences. Promising to deliver the safest, most technologically advanced Power Track System.

Line8 allows you to independently add, remove or reposition power sockets giving you the flexibility and expandability of having as many power outlets you need; at the positions where you need them.

Experience the freedom and convenience.
